CTPF Celebrates Quasquicentennial Anniversary in 2020

The Chicago Teachers' Pension Fund (CTPF) will celebrate its quasquicentennial (125th anniversary) throughout 2020. CTPF will commemorate this milestone of serving members, constituents, and citizens of Illinois with distinction.

The quasiquicentennial provides a unique opportunity to reflect on the rich history of the Fund, and renew CTPF's commitment to helping teachers from the very first day to the very last and beyond.

Call for Photos and Reflections

As part of the 2020 celebration, the Fund is seeking photos and memories/reflections of CTPF educators, with a goal of obtaining a photo from each of the past 125 years. Do you have a photo of yourself at work in your classroom or work space? Or even a parent or grandparent? Please share them with us. We'd also like to collect words of wisdom and thoughts about teaching. Read more here.

How to share your story with CTPF:

1. Email a photo of yourself in your work environment to communications@ctpf.org.
2. Please include your name, school, and year taken (approximate is fine).
3. Submissions may be shared in a special slideshow and on social media (full name will not be used).
4. Please briefly share your favorite classroom story, best practices in education, or words of wisdom for the next generation of teachers or retirees. Click here to send your words of wisdom

Town Hall Webinar

CTPF Executive Director, Charles A. Burbridge, will offer a Town Hall webinar on Wednesday, March 18, 2020, at 4:30 p.m. The program will offer a quarterly update and overview of your Pension Fund. Topics that will be covered include a quarterly financial update, a look at plans for our 125th Anniversary Celebration, and a review of important dates and information for members considering retirement in 2020.

The webinar will last about 45 minutes.

1099-R Mailings

Form 1099-R reports the distribution of pension benefits. CTPF mailed Form 1099-R to all retired members on January 31, 2020.

Security Enhancement for 1099-R Forms

As an added security measure, Social Security numbers on 1099-R forms issued in 2020 will be truncated (_*--1234). Replacing the first five numbers with asterisks will help protect member personal identifying information in accordance with Internal Revenue Service protocols. The electronic Form 1099-R sent to the Internal Revenue Service will include the full nine-digit Social Security number for matching purposes.

Snowbirds: File a Temporary Change of Address

Are you a snowbird enjoying winter in a warmer climate? Make sure you file a temporary change of address form with CTPF. Address changes cannot be made over the phone. Retirees and Inactive Members will need to send a written and signed request to change their address, or complete a Change of Address form (CTPF Form 107) and return it to imaging@ctpf.org. All address changes for active CTPF members are reported through their employers' reporting system.

CTPF is Hiring

Looking for a change in the new year? Do you know a recent graduate or experienced professional seeking employment? Our Chicago-based group is looking for qualified candidates with a variety of abilities and skills. Multiple positions are available. Competitive salary & benefits. CTPF is an Equal Opportunity Employer. Apply today or encourage your friends and colleagues to visit ctpf.org/jobs.

Return completed forms to imaging@ctpf.org. Changes received after the change dates listed above will be processed the following month.

Employer Contribution Reporting

Each pay period, Employers remit employee pension contributions to CTPF. Illinois law requires that these contributions be made within a certain time period. If the Employer does not send the funds within the required time, penalties may be assessed. Recognizing the importance of informing members of Employers who are late in making their employee contributions, the Board directed CTPF staff to publish a listing of delinquent employers.
