INTERIM EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR’S MESSAGE

As your Interim Executive Director, I recognize that my role is about creating the best possible conditions under which the next leader can seamlessly move the Fund forward.

When people look back on their lives, it is often the most difficult challenge that gave them a new perspective or provided the greatest opportunity for growth. Amid the current Pandemic crisis, we are already using what we have learned and experienced to reimagine a bright future.

Thanks to our collective flexibility, dedication, and perseverance, we have provided continuous service to our members and protected health and safety for all since the pandemic began. Since March, CTPF has been working remotely. Our daily procedures and long-term operating plans provided us a path forward and the business of the Fund continues virtually uninterrupted.

We continue to follow state and local government regulations and follow directions from health officials. There is limited, socially distant access to the office. To meet the needs of stakeholders and the public we have made numerous changes. The Board of Trustees conducts meetings remotely with full public access. We have continued to process payments, respond to thousands of calls and emails, conduct video counseling, offer remote notarization, conduct webinars in place of seminars, offer more robust communications, and more.

This year, we witnessed events that reminded us that we all have individual experiences and beliefs that affect our daily interactions with each other. We continue to lead pension and retirement systems throughout the United States, ensuring that investment firms owned by Minorities, Women, and Persons with Disabilities have access to the many opportunities to conduct business with CTPF.

We continue to encourage diversity and equality among our employees, vendors, and investment professionals.

While the market has been turbulent, CTPF pensions are secure. When members vest, they qualify for a lifetime pension, guaranteed by the Illinois Constitution. Pensions are determined by a formula and do not change with market conditions. CTPF continues to utilize professional fund managers to implement the Fund’s investment policy, designed to obtain the highest expected return on investments with an acceptable level of risk.

Despite the despair this year, CTPF celebrated its quasquicentennial (125th anniversary). We commemorated this milestone of serving members, constituents, community, and citizens of Illinois with distinction. The quasquicentennial provided a unique opportunity to reflect on the rich history of the Fund and renew CTPF’s commitment to helping teachers from the very first day to the very last.

As your Interim Executive Director, I recognize that my role is about creating the best possible conditions under which the next leader can seamlessly move the Fund forward. I commit to partnering with all of the Fund’s stakeholders to work collaboratively towards this goal.

Wishing you and yours a safe, healthy, and happy holiday season.

CAVALLARO APPOINTED INTERIM EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

The CTPF Board of Trustees voted unanimously to name Mary Cavallaro, Interim Executive Director of the Chicago Teachers’ Pension Fund (CTPF). The decision is part of the Trustees’ plan to seek a permanent successor through a national search after the departure of Executive Director Charles A. Burbridge on October 14, 2020. Burbridge, who began his CTPF employment in 2015, announced plans to return to Georgia.

Cavallaro has served as Deputy Executive Director since 2017, where she coordinated Fund operations, working with the Board of Trustees to establish operational priorities, and providing leadership and direction in the development of short and long-range plans for the organization. Prior to this role, she served as the Chief Benefits Officer and the Health Benefits Manager. Cavallaro joined CTPF in March 2009.

“I am grateful for the opportunity to support CTPF during this time of transition, and to work in collaboration with the trustees, staff, members, and partners to continue our work,” stated Cavallaro. “I remain committed to ensuring financial stability, operational efficiencies, and seamless service to members.”

Cavallaro’s accomplishments were recognized by Crain’s Chicago Business last spring when they named her a 2020 Notable Woman Executive Over 50. The search process has begun and is expected to take several months.

CTPF COVID-19 OPERATIONS UPDATE

CTPF remains committed to doing our part to stop the spread of COVID-19. While CTPF’s physical office remains closed for the health, safety, and wellbeing of all members, the Fund has continued to deliver all member services remotely. When the pandemic began, members were asked to leave a voice message and calls have been returned. November 5, 2020, CTPF launched new software which makes it possible for Member Services counselors to resume answering calls in “real time” and continue providing all call center functions from a remote location. Calls are answered during normal business hours, 8:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday. Members who need assistance should call 312.641.4464 or email memberservices@ctpf.org.

REMOTE NOTARY AVAILABLE

Members who would like to use remote notary services should call or email Member Services at 312.641.4464, or memberservices@ctpf.org, and request a video conference for notarization.
