CTPF Executive Director’s Message

I hope you enjoyed a wonderful holiday season, filled with family, friends and even a few gifts. The irony is that to a pension fund director and all who are members of the Fund, “pension holidays” and “gifts” have a very different meaning and they’re certainly not festive.

A “pension holiday” is just pleasant sounding code for employers skipping payments to fund retirements – borrowing money from their employees and pushing the costs on to future generations. The interruption in regular payments from our employer during the past 20 years has taken money owed to our members, starved our investments, and contributed to our funded ratio dropping to about 50% from 100% as recently as 2001. That’s certainly not a holiday our members want to celebrate.

The word “gift” can also take on a negative connotation, as it’s often used incorrectly in public rhetoric as a description for pensions. Few would consider a paycheck from an employer a gift – and the same is true for pensions. While our members are grateful for retirement security, pension benefits are not gifts. The teachers who will retire in 2016 with a pension and 34 years of service began paying for their retirement in 1982, making regular contributions each and every pay period, uninterrupted.

Keeping the pension promise required action from our members in 2015, and the 6,500 e-mail messages our members sent, demanding action, accountability, and full funding for CTPF made a difference.

The 2015 fiscal year marked the second year in a row that CPS made a payment of more than $600 million to CTPF. Legislative advocacy also successfully fought the passage of SB 318, which would have included an additional $500 million in pension holidays for CTPF.

Together we fought and received full funding, and these are good forward steps. As we look ahead, we know that the pressures facing our City and State are tremendous. We will face an uphill battle for resources and funding in 2016.

As the new year begins, please make a special resolution to protect your pension. I hope you will use your talents as an educator to remind legislators about the importance of correcting, not repeating, the mistakes of the past.

Charles A. Burbridge, executive director

Resolve to Take Action in 2016

Here are some concrete ways you can take action and protect your pension in 2016. Find links to all of these resources on the Education and Advocacy tab at www.ctpf.org.

1. Download a “Mistakes of the Past” flyer and educate yourself about our funding history.

2. Take time this winter to ask your legislators in person to reject requests for pension “holidays.” Many have regular in-district office hours and welcome visits from constituents. Not sure who represents you in Springfield? Find a legislator look up on the Education and Advocacy tab at www.ctpf.org.

3. Share the “Mistakes of the Past” flyer with your family and/or neighbors to educate them on the importance of fully funding teacher pensions.

4. Make sure you are registered as a Pension Fund Ambassador so that you receive regular updates on advocacy issues and training opportunities. Register at www.ctpf.org.

CTPF Files Law Suit against World’s Largest Banks

November 25, 2015, the Chicago Teachers’ Pension Fund (CTPF) filed a lawsuit in federal court charging some of the world’s largest investment banks with conspiring to engineer and maintain a collusive and anti-competitive stranglehold over the market for interest rate swaps (IRS) in violation of federal antitrust laws. Led by the CTPF, investors seek an injunction to put an end to this anti-competitive arrangement, and damages to compensate them for the losses they suffered.

“CTPF maintains a long history of being the initiator on issues to improve the lives of our members. We view this action as necessary to protect the long-term interests of our members and their financial security. This suit addresses this monopolistic practice on behalf of the market and institutional investors who manage assets on behalf of everyday citizens,” said Jay C. Rehak, president, CTPF Board of Trustees.

The complaint alleges that the banks used their power to stop competitors from bringing exchange trading to the IRS market – keeping prices for trades artificially high. As a result, CTPF paid more for IRS trades than they would have in a competitive market. Read more about the lawsuit at www.ctpf.org.

CTPF Health Insurance Seminars

One of your most important considerations as you near retirement is continuing health insurance coverage. CTPF sponsors comprehensive health insurance plans for its retired members. Qualified retirees may also receive a subsidy to help pay for the cost. Find information about health insurance options in the 2016 Health Insurance Handbook and Open Enrollment Guide, available at www.ctpf.org or attend a 2016 Retirement Seminar. (See page 6 for seminar dates and registration information.)

CTPF Presents Diversity Reports

The Chicago Teachers’ Pension Fund (CTPF) invested more than $3.6 billion in assets or more than 35.6% of total assets with Minority, Women, and Disadvantaged Business Enterprise (MWDBE) firms during fiscal year 2015.

November testimony before the Illinois Senate Committee hearing on Pensions and Investments highlighted the Fund’s exceptional performance.

“CTPF Trustees understand that the $10 billion in assets we steward helps drive economic activity, and creates jobs and opportunities for individuals and businesses in the State of Illinois. We have been leaders in making MWDBE investments and are proud of our commitments that consistently exceed our goals. As a Fund, we can clearly demonstrate the benefits in making investments in people and assets that provide opportunities that may otherwise not be available,” said Jay C. Rehak, president of the CTPF Board of Trustees.

Over the past twenty years, CTPF has seen dramatic growth in MWDBE investments. The Fund invested 7.9% of assets in MWDBE-owned funds in 1995. Investments in 2015 increased by 2.2% from 2014 with a total investment of 35.6% of the Fund’s portfolio. CTPF’s 2015 Diversity report is available at www.ctpf.org.

CTPF Hosts Leadership Roundtable

CTPF hosted the third meeting of the Illinois Reciprocal Funds Leaders’ Roundtable on December 9, 2015. The group of leaders from the 13 Illinois Reciprocal Funds reconvened to discuss the economic impact pension funds have on Illinois, consider ways to work cooperatively, and discuss current legislative issues. The Roundtable group will meet again in February.
CTPF is a member-focused organization, and we strive throughout the year to provide exceptional customer service. Here’s a look at some highlights from Fiscal Year 2015*

JOIN US FOR A 2016 RETIREMENT SEMINAR

CTPF 2016 Retirement Seminars

If you’re considering retirement in 2016, please join the Chicago Teachers’ Pension Fund (CTPF) for a retirement seminar. The seminars provide a one-stop shop for retirement information including a general overview of the CTPF and CPS retirement processes. CTPF’s Member Services Department will be available at both seminars to answer individual questions, assist with completing forms, and provide notary services. Representatives from the Social Security Administration and the Chicago Public Schools will join the CTPF representatives for April 19th seminar only.

February 15, 2016
9:00 a.m. or 1:00 p.m. (attend one)
Hilton Chicago/Oak Lawn
9333 South Cicero Avenue, Oak Lawn

April 19, 2016
9:00 a.m. or 1:00 p.m. (attend one)
Harold Washington Library,
Cindy Pritzker Auditorium, lower level
400 South State Street, Chicago

Registration is required and seating is limited. Call Member Services at 312.641.4464 to register.

Schedule Your Personal Benefits Consultation

If you are considering retiring in 2016, make an appointment to meet with a Pension Resource Specialist for a retirement consultation. Appointments are available from Monday – Friday, 8:00 a.m. until 3:30 p.m. These personalized meetings allow you to discuss your retirement situation in depth. Bring your questions and relevant career information.

Walk-in Visitors
CTPF strongly recommends scheduling appointments. Members without appointments may be seen on a first-come, first-served basis, between 9:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m. Wait times will vary and may be long during peak periods.

CTPF is located at 203 North LaSalle Street, suite 2600, Chicago. The CTA’s blue, green, brown, pink, purple, and orange lines all stop at Clark and Lake. Parking is available in the building and discounted vouchers are available for $18 (check only, no cash).
Retirement Readiness

The steps you take now can ensure a smooth retirement transition in June.

What to do now . . .

It’s not too early to start preparing for the retirement process by doing research and organizing your information.

1. Do Some Homework

Every retirement situation is different. Evaluating your options involves time and energy. CTPF has helpful information and tools available online. Visit www.ctpf.org and click the “Thinking about Retirement” link to get started.

Be sure to check with your current employer to learn about the resignation process. Also, contact any prior employers to obtain the necessary paperwork if they are part of the reciprocal pension system.

2. Register for a 2016 Retirement Seminar

Call Member Services and register for one of the Retirement Seminars being offered February 15 and April 19 (see page 6 for details). These seminars provide an overview of the retirement process and can help you jump start (or complete) your retirement application.

Everyone who pre-registers will also receive an Estimate of Pension in their information packet at the seminar.

3. Register your e-mail with CTPF

CTPF sends regular updates and information to retirees through e-mail. You will lose your employer-provided e-mail account when you retire, so make sure you register a permanent e-mail address with CTPF. Find a registration link at www.ctpf.org.

4. Follow us on Social Media

One way to stay up-to-date on pension news is by following CTPF on social media. Not only will you find retirement information and deadline dates, but news and facts about pension funding. It’s part of our commitment to providing services that meet your needs – today and tomorrow. We are “Chicago Teachers’ Pension Fund” on Facebook and @ctpf_tweets on Twitter.

Picture your future with CTPF.

It’s never too early to think about retirement.

If you’re new to the Fund, it can be hard to picture yourself at retirement, but planning for retirement should begin with your first day of employment. CTPF members do not contribute to Social Security, so understanding your CTPF pension funding. It’s part of our commitment to providing services that meet your needs – today and tomorrow.

Where can I find more information?

The CTPF website includes information about benefits and publications on a variety of topics available to download and review. Find publications at www.ctpf.org/general_info/publications.htm.

New to the fund? Steps you can take...

1. Stay informed. Register your e-mail address with CTPF. Find a link on the home page at www.ctpf.org.

2. Keep your employer and CTPF up-to-date with any changes in your demographic information.

3. Take an active role in protecting your pension and financial security by joining the Pension Fund Ambassador program. Find a registration link on the Education and Advocacy page at www.ctpf.org.

4. Complete a CTPF Designation of Beneficiary (DOB) form and update it as important life events occur (marriage, civil union, childbirth, divorce, etc.). See page 4 for more information.
CTPF Mission Statement
To provide, protect, and enhance the present and future economic well being of members, pensioners and beneficiaries through efficient and effective management of benefit programs, investment practices and customer service, and to commit to earning and keeping the respect and trust of the participants through quality service and by protecting retirement benefits, in compliance with applicable laws and standards.
