CTPF Trustee Bernice Eshoo Announces Retirement

CTPF extends its congratulations and best wishes for a long, happy, and productive retirement to CTPF Trustee Bernice Eshoo, who announced her retirement from CPS after 34 years of service. A tireless advocate for students, Trustee Eshoo has been a dedicated volunteer for various student-focused organizations and has served on several other committees and boards in addition to her duties as a CTPF Trustee.

With her retirement, Trustee Eshoo has also resigned from the CTPF Board of Trustees. Trustee Eshoo was appointed to the CTPF Board of Trustees in July 2013 and reelected in 2016. She served in a variety of leadership positions, including Recording Secretary and co-Chair of the Personnel Committee. She is also a Chicago Teachers Union (CTU) elected trustee and executive board member, and has chaired the CTU scholarship committee while also serving on several other committees.

"On behalf of our Board of Trustees and the CTPF staff, I offer sincere thanks to Trustee Eshoo for her years of dedicated service to CTPF and its members, and wish her all the best in her retirement," said Charles A. Burbridge, CTPF Executive Director.
