CTPF Remains Leader Among Pension Funds in Minority, Women and Disabled-Owned Business Enterprise Efforts

CTPF presents its MWDBE investments to State Legislators at an Illinois Senate Committee hearing

The Chicago Teachers' Pension Fund (CTPF) announced that it invested $4.5 billion, more than 41.9 percent of total fund assets, with Minority, Women and Disabled-Owned Business Enterprise (MWDBE) firms in fiscal year 2018. This represents a 9.11% increase over 2017 investments. The Fund's work was highlighted during October 16, 2018, testimony presented to state legislators at an Illinois Senate Committee hearing on Pensions and Investments held in Chicago.

"Our total fund MWDBE assets have increased 525% since we first started tracking this data in the early 1990s. CTPF has consistently been a leader among pension and retirement systems throughout the United States, ensuring that MWDBE firms have access to the many opportunities to manage CTPF assets," said Jay C. Rehak, President of the Board of Trustees. "Our current allocations more than double the Fund's target and we pride ourselves on exceeding these measures and taking affirmative steps for our investment managers' participation."
